Fair Book Dedication

Gail Wolfgang

Gail has been a longtime supporter of Montgomery County 4-H. It began when she was a member of the Montgomery County 4-H dairy club and a community club where she had projects for flowers, vegetables, pigs, dairy cattle and many others. She met her husband, Robert through 4-H and they became leaders of the dairy club before they had their own children. Once their four children (Amy, Brenda, Seth and Karen) were old enough for 4-H, it was just natural for them to join. The children were all in the dairy club and also had other projects. Gail was always there supporting her children and rooting on the other kids.

Gail was a member of the Farm, Home, & Youth Foundation for several years and helped with the fair committee and you could always find her helping others at the fairs. She has purchased several animals/baskets at the market animal sale over the years, supporting all 4-Hers. Once her grandchildren were old enough, they too joined 4-H and you can now find her at the show ring cheering them on.

Thank you, Gail, for your continued support of the Montgomery County 4-H program!

Farm, Home and Youth Foundation

The Farm, Home and Youth Foundation of Montgomery County, was organized in February 1984. The sole purpose of the Foundation is to provide facilities and program support for over 3,200 4-H members in the county. In early 1984, the Skippack Elementary School was purchased by the Foundation to become the 4-H Center, now known as the Farm, Home, & Youth Complex.

Many generous donations from groups such as Clemens Food Group, Montgomery County Commissioners, Freddy Hill Farms, Marcho Family, and others, have contributed to the growth and maintenance of the facilities. The Foundation has been fortunate to have the support of the community for over 40 years.
