November, 2025

The Farm, Home, & Youth Foundation of Montgomery County is again hosting the FHY Rodeo on June 27, 2026, featuring RedEye Rodeo and sanctioned by SEBRA, South Extreme Bull Riding Association. For the last two years, our rodeos have been extremely successful with thousands of spectators.

This exciting event includes barrel racing, bull riding, and mutton busting with addition of team roping this year plus food, vendors, and a beer garden. There are no other events of this kind in the area and we anticipate that 2026 will be even bigger!

We are seeking sponsors for the 2026 rodeo. Your sponsorship includes banners that will be prominently displayed in the arena during the rodeo, our barrel races, and the Fair plus complementary rodeo ticket(s), Fair parking pass(es) and listing in Fair booklet which is available online. Sponsors are also promoted on social media and our website. Your sponsorship is also tax deductible.

About the The Farm, Home, & Youth Foundation of Montgomery County

The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that owns and operates the Farm, Home, & Youth Complex (formerly known as the Montgomery County 4-H Center) in Collegeville, PA. The Foundation donates use of the facilities to the numerous county 4-H clubs that are based in Montgomery County. This includes animal science clubs like livestock, beekeeping, seeing eye puppy club, and poultry as well as horse science clubs, and community clubs like sewing and crafting.
